Professional Background

Sanna Erika Teresia Orkan is a Partner at the Firm and our Business Director. She began her career in 2000 by serving at the Global Security Department of the Swedish Ministry for Foreign Affairs, subsequently holding positions of increasing complexity and responsibility.

Following an assignment at the Swedish Consulate in San Diego, USA, in 2001 Sanna was appointed Desk Officer at the Foreign Ministry's Americas Department, handling Sweden's bilateral relations with several Latin American countries. During this period, Sanna also acted as one of Sweden's delegates at Coreper, the Committee of Permanent Representatives in the European Union, which holds its meetings in Brussels, Belgium.

After leaving the Diplomatic Service, Sanna moved to Madrid, Spain, where she worked for the Spanish Public Foundation Genoma España as Management Group Coördinator until she joined DelaCalle Abogados, as Partner and Business Director, at the time of the Firm's foundation in 2013.

Publications

Sanna is the autor of an academic thesis entitled "Hardcore Cartels in the US and in the EC", which was evaluated by Professor Ulf Bernitz and published by the University of Stockholm. Moreover, she is the author of many reports prepared on behalf of the Swedish Ministry for Foreign Affairs.

Education

Sanna graduated in Law from the University of Stockholm, where she also received a Master's Degree in Competition Law with Honours.

She has completed Courses in Spanish Law at Madrid Complutense University, and undertaken English Literature studies at the University of Stockholm.

Languages

Swedish (native), English, Spanish and French.
